Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: During Saturday Low levels of air pollution are forecast across the United Kingdom. Isolated Moderate levels might develop close to major roads and urban centres, especially across central and southern England and Wales where winds are lighter.

Tomorrow: Air pollution levels are expected to remain Low during Sunday, with a continued chance of localised Moderate levels close to urban centres, mainly given lighter winds across more southern areas of England and Wales.

Outlook: Levels of air pollution are forecast to remain Low for much of the UK during the outlook period. There remains a risk of localised Moderate levels, mainly for the south and southeast.
